

GREAT IDEAS FOR THE GREAT OUTDOORS

Balmy summer evenings beckon you to do almost everything outside. Here are some of our favorite ideas for enjoying your own backyard.

seeing stars

Look up, pick out the constellations and enjoy the marvel of the twinkling sky on a warm summer night. With these constellation charts, nothing could be more simple or satisfying than stargazing.

1. BIG DIPPER

2. CASSIOPEIA

3. THE LITTLE DIPPER

Picnic Improv

Have a picnic – tonight! Take your shoes off, throw a blanket on the ground, use paper plates and cups and turn dinnertime into an event. Rainy day? Have an indoor picnic! Without the fuss of packing things up and lugging them about, it's more fun than ever.

Alfresco Games

Take your favorite board and card games into the great outdoors – or at least onto your porch. It's a great way to mix up family games' night or to cap off an evening of entertaining. As the sun sets, just remember to bring out the lanterns – charades just isn't the same in the dark.
